

Betty Perkins Simmons

June 12, 1935 - October 2, 2017

Betty June Simmons of Willow Springs passed away Monday, October 2, 2017, while at Ozarks Medical Center in West Plains due to natural causes. Born on June 12, 1935 to John Thomas and Anna Isabel (Dunning) Bridges in Austin, MO; she was 82 years old. Betty grew up and attended school in Archie, MO. She was married to Eli Perkins on September 11, 1950 in Eureka Springs, AR and to this union five children were born. She worked for many years at the local factories: Rawlings, Conaway-Winter and Brown Shoe Company as a floor lady. She also helped Eli in the logging business where she would cut and skid the logs; in fact, she did all aspects except using a chain saw. One year she and Eli won the Jack and Jill Crosscut Saw contest on Food and Forest Day, beating other teams comprised of men. Betty accepted the Lord as her Savior at the age of 27. She loved the Lord and she served in several capacities at the First Baptist Church in Willow Springs. She not only did custodial work, but also taught the 10-12 girls' group for many years. She loved singing in the choir, and also was a soloist on many occasions.

Betty was also an accomplished seamstress. She made quilts for every member of her family. She had many enjoyments in her life. She loved to garden, grow beautiful roses, and do landscaping. It was said that she loved to sing while she did her household chores. She would sing while she cooked, while she mopped the floors, and knew thousands of songs. If you gave her a word, she could sing a song with that word in it. She also loved to attend sporting events that her children participated in, and she was 100% behind their efforts.

Preceding Betty in death are her parents; her husband, Eli; a son, David Eli Perkins; four brothers: Tom, Chester, James, and Joe Bridges; and four sisters: Mary Mathews, Myrtle Bridges, Elma Perkins and Patty Matta.

She is survived by her children: Ollie Isabel Taylor; Daniel J. Perkins and his wife, Sandy; Karen Sue Perkins, and Dwight Perkins, all of Willow Springs.

Also surviving are her grandchildren; Rachel Marie Ellison of Willow Springs; Joseph Ellison and his wife, Sarah, of Sparta, MO; David Taylor and his wife, Ashley of Fayetteville, AR; Joel Taylor and his wife, Lindsey of Prairie Grove, AR; Keturah Stewart and her husband, Dan of Fairview, MO; Jemima Huerta and her husband, Jaime of Springdale, AR; Jamin Ellison of Ft. Comments

“ Her voice, her hugs, her love... they were all rough (lol) and always given with gusto. If you had a good bruise, she would poke it and ask if it hurt. She was so ornery. I still can't resist to do the same.

She loved to bake. For my birthday, I've always preferred blackberry cobbler. She would make one and mom would make one. Grandma would say that mom's was too tart. Mom would say that grandma's was too sweet. I didn't care, I would get two cobblers out of their competition. I might have even sided with both in secret, so I could keep getting two cobblers. ;)

When eating out, Grandma could somehow get pizza sauce on the back of her ear. It was pretty amazing.

Grandma liked really crunchy, dark toast. I used to adjust the toaster to a lighter setting and she'd complain about who kept doing that. Grandpa Eli said I made the best toast. LOL. I never told on myself until now.

I miss her so very much. <3

“ She was the best of the best when it came time to picking blueberries. I never saw someone so hard working. I will miss my special picker.

“ To the Family. Betty was a wonderful friend and neighbor to me when living by me at Senior Housing. Her and I sure loved visiting long hours and many of those hours were spent laughing pretty loud. Will always remember her as a wonderful and loving person. My Thoughts To All, Donita Davis

“ Aunt Betty would faithfully come get me as a young girl on Sunday mornings to go with her family to church. I came to know the Lord as my Savior as a result. I have so many other memories but that is the one that means the most to me. R.I.P. Aunt Betty spread your wings and sing with the angels.

Your niece,
