“ Linda, Norma and Ricky, the passing of your father brings back many good memories. I can vividly remember walking the dirt road from our blue house by the airport to your house, in what I considered the country, on hot summer days and walking back home eating fresh tomatoes your parents sent home with me. All of you made me feel right at home and I remember your family fondly. Truman said your dad never met a stranger and was known as an avid sportsman. We're sorry for your loss and will be thinking of you.

“ I remember Delbert fondly. When Norma & I were younger we played together & I believe at times we gave Delbert & Ruth fits. We used to sing together along with Janice McFarland & I am not sure we were as good as we thought we were. So sorry for the loss of your father.

“ My condolences to all of you. I have such happy memories of Uncle Delbert. I remember that for every family reunion, he wanted me to make pineapple-upside-down cake. Always a good visit when you ran into him, not matter where it was. He had a gift of gab, for sure. I will always cherish the fact that he was so very good to me over the years. He'll now be happy with Aunt Ruth.

“ My earliest memories of Uncle Delbert was going to drop off milk with my Granny (in milk cans back then.) and Uncle D would always send me a chocolate milk back with the empty cans...that had to have been a minimum of 45 yrs ago..
