“ My sympathies to Paula and Gary. I have very fond memories of visiting my "great" Aunt Maxine and Uncle Paul years ago and having so much fun and going squirrel hunting at the park with Rowdy. You were a wonderful lady and lived a long full life.

“ An old adage says, "We make our friends; we sometimes make our enemies. But God always makes good neighbors". Maxine was a tremendous neighbor and even better friend. The Duddridge families have been on North Walnut Street for seventy years. The Godsy families have been there that long as well - if not longer. I always joked with her that she lived on one end of the street, myself on the other, so we held the street down. Will miss her tremendously. God Bless.
