

Rosalyn Roybal

August 30, 1950 - June 21, 2015

Rosalyn Roybal, a long-time resident of Willow Springs, passed away on Sunday, June 21, 2015 while at her home, due to natural causes. Born on August 30, 1950 in Houma, Louisiana; she was 64 years old.

Rosalyn, also known as "mamacita" or "mom" to everyone that met her, enjoyed cooking and baking for her grandchildren, children, and friends. She was an avid gardener who loved growing beautiful roses, iris', and gladiolus' in her garden. It was said that if you were in need of anything, she was always there with a helping hand, or simply a shoulder to cry on. Rosalyn had the ability to tell you exactly what you needed to hear even when no one else would. Her greatest enjoyment in life came from spending time with her family and friends where she could talk about anything and everything. She was a long-time and active member of the Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Willow Springs. Rosalyn will be greatly missed by her family and everyone who knew her.

She was preceded in death by her parents; two husbands, Kenneth Parker, and Lorenzo Roybal; her son Byron Parker; and her granddaughter Avery Hagen.

Rosalyn is survived by her children, Tomacita Roybal-Hagen and her husband Nick of Willow Springs; Doris Parker-Trujillo and her husband Rick of Willow Springs; and her son Kenneth Parker and his wife Patty of Lompoc, California. She is further survived by her grandchildren, Kailey, Serena and Liam Hagen of Willow Springs; and Cody, Hailey and Madison Parker all of Lompoc, California; her grandson Byron Parker of New Orleans, Louisiana; and numerous stepchildren and step-grandchildren.

Events

JUN Memorial Service 11:00AM
26
Sacred Heart Catholic Church
MO, US

Comments

“ May our dear lord comfort you all

carolyn roybal anaya - June 23, 2015 at 04:38 PM

“ Our thoughts and prayers r with the family may she Rip she was a good friend cecilia gonzales

Cecilia Gonzales - June 23, 2015 at 04:07 PM

“ Ros and I have shared many moments from way back-1984.She was always there to lend a helping hand in the one-room school events. She will always be remembered, but not forgotten. Rest in Peace with your loved ones. Prayers for Toma, Doris, and Kenneth!!

Ms. Sue - June 23, 2015 at 03:03 PM