

Mrs. Cindy Ann Wagner

October 8, 1959 - March 29, 2018

Cindy Ann Wagner, a resident of Willow Springs, passed away late Thursday night, March 29, 2018 while at her home due to natural causes. Born October 8, 1959 to William Jason, Jr. and Judith Ann (Hale) Babb in St. Joseph, MO, she was 58 years old.

Cindy grew up and attended the local schools in St. Joseph, and later attended school in Willow Springs. She was married to Fred Wagner on September 19, 1977 in Houston, MO. To this union, one child was born. Cindy was employed as a bookkeeper for a tax firm in Houston, MO, and also worked as a checker at Wal-Mart until she was unable to work due to illness. She attended the St. Paul Lutheran Church in Willow Springs when her health allowed. Cindy had many hobbies and enjoyments in her life. She liked to sew and crochet; she also loved to read, but she lived to spend her time outdoors. Since her husband was gone much of the time driving a truck, Cindy spent the majority of her time working on the farm. She also liked to go mushroom hunting and fishing. She loved all aspects of farm life which included raising chickens, working in the hay field, driving the tractor, and taking care of her dogs that helped her with the cattle. However, nothing gave her more joy than the time spent with her grandchildren. She will be greatly missed by her family and all who knew her.

Cindy is preceded in death by her grandparents, her parents, her brother,

Charles Babb, her brother-in-law, Ted Wagner, and a nephew, Travis Wagner.

She is survived by her husband, Fred; a daughter, Sara Buckner and her husband, Derrick of Willow Springs; three brothers, Billy Babb and his wife, Christina; Jim Babb and his wife, Rita of Willow Springs and John Babb and his wife, Marilyn of Cabool. Further surviving are six grandchildren, and numerous nieces and nephews.

A visitation for Cindy will be held Wednesday, April 4, 2018 at 10:00 A.M. at Willow Funeral Home, with the funeral service immediately following at 11:00 A.M. with Pastor John Helmers officiating. Interment will follow at the Nagle Cemetery. Arrangements are under the direction of Willow Funeral Home. On-line condolences may be left at www.willowspringsfuneralhome.com
