“ SO sorry to hear the loss of an "old friend. Haven't seen Clyde since the 60's, but never forgot the time he was on his way home to be with his family. He had just bought a brand new chevy pick-up. The happiness on his face, even to a snotnosed kid such as I was imprinted in my memory through all these years. I know his wife and children greive, but there is a great celebration in heaven tonite. I pray that all his family are saved so they can see him again and sing praise unto the Lord together for all eternity. My heart, and my prayer's go out for his loved ones.PEACE
