“ My buddy,

Memories of boys in the old neighborhood in Chicago growing up and having fun, that was Dan, Don and I. The 3 of us a life time of friendship that has so many remembrances. Over all the many years staying in touch with each other, even moving to the suburban towns of DuPage from Chicago. And the joy of seeing our families grow up, grandchildren and their children. To our daughter Alisa her, "Uncle Dan" said with love, because he is uncle to her. She sends her sympathy.

Dan was family to us and we will always remember our times together. To Virginia, Bobby, Raymond, cousins and all the children we share your sorrow. Let us have comfort knowing he is resting without pain now.

“ Served Danny many cups of coffee at Granny's Café. My condolences to Virginia and the entire family. I sent a yellow candle as that was Mom's favorite color along with green!
