

Danny L. Loring

July 3, 1952 - January 14, 2017

Danny Lee Loring passed away Saturday morning, January 14, 2017 while at Carthage Health and Rehabilitation Center in Carthage, MO due to natural causes. Born July 3, 1952 to Jearl and Reva Marie (Morris) Loring in West Plains; he was 64 years old.

Danny was a life long resident of Willow Springs where he attended the local schools. He was employed with the City of Mtn. View where he worked in the sanitation department. He was also a member of the Mtn. View Masonic Lodge. He had many enjoyments in his life which included fishing, hunting, and spending time with his dogs and cats. He was an avid gardener and loved to grow things; however, he especially loved the outdoors and spent much of his time outside. He will be greatly missed by his family and friends, who had come to know him.

Danny was preceded in death by his parents and one infant brother, David Loring.

He is survived by his son, Kristopher Loring; grandson, Maxwell Loring both of St. Louis; one brother, Mike Loring and his wife, Lisa of Neosho, MO; and one niece, Nicole Loring of Poplar Bluff, MO.
