

Dolora May Trowbridge

August 8, 1923 - February 27, 2016

Dolora May Trowbridge, 92, of Oklahoma City, and formally of Willow Springs, passed away on Saturday, February 27, 2016 while at Manor Care Nursing Home in Oklahoma City due to natural causes. She was born on August 8, 1923 in Missouri. Dolora was a conservative Mennonite all of her life. She was a member of Westside Family Life Center when she lived here in Willow Springs. She had many enjoyments in her life which included quilting in her younger years. Dolora also liked to read, garden, working with her flowers, and especially loved spending time with her church family. She will be greatly missed by her family and all who knew her.

Dolora is survived by her son, John David Trowbridge; daughter, Nancy Robinson and husband Darrel; and grandson, John James. She was preceded in death by her parents; husband, James Trowbridge; and sister, Lydia Depriest. Funeral Arrangements are under the direction of John Ireland Funeral Home in Moore, OK and Willow Funeral Home. On-line condolences for Dolora's family may be left at www.willowspringsfuneralhome.com

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with her families. From the Late Sloan and Sarah Garrett Families--David and Georgia Garrett and Linda and Bruce Bennett. Lots of memories of your Mom and Dad. David said Dolora came in town one day and had Nancy all dressed up in her little long dress and was as pretty as a doll. So many memories. We loved them both very much.
