

Flora L. Wiehe

March 17, 1940 - January 1, 2015

Flora Lorean Wiehe, a resident of Willow Springs, passed away at her home surrounded by her family Thursday evening, January 1st, 2015 from natural causes. Born March 17th, 1940 in Hazard, Kentucky to Everett and Maudie (Creech) Stacy, she was 74 years old.

Flora spent most of her life here in Willow Springs and was primarily a homemaker. Flora loved being outdoors where she could spend time with her family. She especially enjoyed time spent with her grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Flora's favorite pastimes included camping, fishing, as well as farming where she was able to raise pigs and chickens. Her one guilty pleasure was watching WWF. Being both a Sunday School teacher and a Minister, Flora had preached at several of the local area churches and found much enjoyment in attending church.

Flora was preceded in death by her parents; her brother Marvin Stacy, and her sisters Correan Wake and Sandy Rich.

She is survived by her sons Tom Berry (Liz) of Yakama, WA; Tim Berry (Sylvia) of Willow Springs; David Wake also of Yakama, WA; Larry Wake (Jeriann) of Walnut Ridge, AR; and Terry Wake of Willow Springs. Also surviving are her sisters Barbara Loughridge (Richard) of Willow Springs, and her sister Ailene Wake of Cabool. She is further survived by 19 grandchildren, 15 great grandchildren, and numerous nieces and nephews.
