“ We will always treasure the times we spent with our beautiful and favorite Aunt Hopie as we called her. Many evenings when she lived at Sunshine Village, we watched her favorite show with her - "Wheel of Fortune". We loved to tease her that we were having a birthday party for her and one time we did surprise her while she was at Willow West. She has a smile on her face now and we know she is at peace with her beloved brother, Homer.
Until we meet again ...
We love you.

“ My Aunt Hope was and will remain one of the sweetest spirits in the whole world.

My first memories of her are when she would visit from St. Louis dressed in a beautiful navy blue suit and white blouse, her make-up perfectly applied, hair and nails impeccable. She was so beautiful!

Later when I lived in St. Louis, we enjoyed many years visiting her in Mansion House where she lived in downtown St. Louis. Particularly on the fourth of July we would enjoy the fireworks from the promenade that overlooked the St. Louis arch and riverfront. The first time we went, she had some caramel popcorn. We ate all of it. From then on, every year, she had caramel popcorn.

We also enjoyed Aunt Hope on holidays at my cousin Myrtle's house in St. Louis. Myrtle and her kids loved her as we did. I have so many special memories, especially Christmas Eve.

Then she moved to Willow Springs. She, Anise Parker, Buff, and my dad had some wonderful years together there. They played cards and shared meals. She took good care of dad when he was sick. I'm so glad they had those years together.

We will all miss her. She always had a soft, sweet smile no matter what, was always humble, and always kind. She was a sweetheart in life and in eternity.

I love you, Aunt Hope.
