I know you didn't always have it easy, but through it all you kept a happy, positive outlook and especially a deep faith in Jesus. “ Jan you were our sweet and gentle sister who was always quick to help out whenever you could. I remember a time when you must have been praying for me. You knew I was hurting and sent me a comforting book and a teacup with a candle. I still cherish those items today, but most of all I'm gonna miss your prayers.

Love,

Your littlest sister, Patti
