“ I became friends with John and Sherry through my brother David Cato. David loved John like a brother. Before her death Sherry cooked and baked and would have Dave over to eat. The entire family are great people. Dave and John could talk for hours. When Dave moved to St. Charles it was John, Sherry, and their daughter and son-in-law moved his furniture. Then John's daughter would bring him up to visit Dave. They were friends to the end. We will miss him very much.
