

Mrs. Judith Marie Stolba

October 22, 1946 - August 10, 2017

Judith “Judy” Stolba of Willow Springs, MO passed peacefully from this life on August 10, 2017 surrounded by family.

Judy was born October 22nd, 1946 to Clifford and Helen (Turner) Roberts in West Plains, MO. She graduated from Willow Springs High School in 1964.

Gary and Judy were married September 18, 1998. They would have been married 19 years.

Judy truly lived life to the fullest through simple pleasures such as chatting with friends and family on the phone, reading, working crossword puzzles, baking, giving grandkids their first ice cream cone and first bowl of chicken and noodles, watching her hummingbirds, and her cats Earl and Molly. She loved spending time with Grandkids creating lifetime memories, some of those memories being countless hours in the pool with Grandma being the target, and making Christmas special for her loved ones. With her passing she has left an empty place in our hearts. She has also provided us with a lifetime of memories.

Judy is survived by her husband, Gary Stolba; son, Nick and Joy Zorsch of Bois D’ Arc, MO; Gary Wayne and DeeDee Stolba; Brad and Martha Stolba; Clint and Janice Stolba; brother, Clifford “Sonny” Roberts all of Willow Springs, MO. Brother in-law, Ken Boone of Springfield, MO; Grandkids: Nikki and Shelby Gray, Lindsay Stolba of Willow Springs; Eric and Hannah Stolba of Rogersville; Kaleb and Laney Stolba, Kelsey Stolba and her fiancée Lucas Combs, Derrick Stolba, Avery Stolba, and Kolton Stolba all of Willow Springs, MO; great grandson, Eli Stolba; nieces and nephews: Jim and Terri Boone, Rob and Jennifer Boone , David Boone, Kristi and Pete Grill; Kelly Roberts, Andy and Mary Roberts, and Matt Roberts.

She is preceded in death by her parents, daughter, Susan Zorsch; sister, Carolyn Boone; and sister-in-law, Beverly Roberts.

A graveside memorial service for Judy will be held at 2:00pm, Tuesday, August 15th at the Pine Grove Cemetery in Willow Springs, MO. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests contributions be made in Judy's memory to the Willow Springs Library and may be left at the funeral home. Arrangements are under the direction of Willow Funeral Home.

“ I started kindergarten with Judy. I remember I walked in the classroom and saw a girl wearing those old aviator goggles and pretending she was an airplane. It was Judy. I spent all 13 years in school with her. She was a beautiful wonderful and funny girl. I'll miss her telling me the latest news in my hometown Willow Springs. She was special and to those who really knew her a big hearted compassionate lady. I am sad. Bill Tandy

“ Growing up, I spent many hours with Judy, playing at our Uncle Ova and Stella's house. For several years during high school, my dad would drop me off at her house to wait until school started, and then we would walk to school together. Her mom would make breakfast for us and both made me feel at home.

Judy was a strong and courageous woman in the face of some heartlessness as well as the long-suffering of her daughter.

I honor and respect her life.

My deepest sympathy and love to Sonny and family.
