

Mrs. Kyla Jean Wake

May 10, 1985 - July 10, 2020

Kyla Jean Wake, a resident of Webb City, MO, and formerly of Willow Springs, passed away Friday, July 10, 2020 in Joplin, MO as a result of a motor vehicle accident. Kyla was born May 10, 1985 to Dale and Susan (Metz) Button in Phoenix, AZ and was 35 years old.

Kyla spent her early childhood in Williams, AZ. When she was 13, the family moved to Willow Springs. She married Carlton Luke Wake in Willow Springs on May 31, 2005 at a friend's house. Kyla was employed as a waitress at Ryan's and Ruby Tuesday both in West Plains. She also worked at cleaning houses in the different towns where she lived. Kyla enjoyed spending her free time camping and floating the rivers in the area. She also loved to sing; however, her favorite times were those spent with family, especially their children. Kyla attended Westside Family Life Center where she accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior and was recently baptized. She will be dearly missed by her family, her friends, and all who knew her.

Kyla is preceded in death by her parents, Dale and Susan Button.

She is survived by her husband, Luke; their daughters, Hailey Jean and Alisha Lou; two stepchildren, Kacie Dawn Golden and Ean Paul Wake; her brother, Darren Button and her sister, Chennin Sullivan. She is further survived by several nieces and nephews who will miss their "Auntie" dearly.

In lieu of flowers the family requests donations may be made in Kyla's memory to Willow Funeral Home, LLC to help defray funeral expenses and may be mailed or left at the funeral home.

A memorial service will be held Friday, July 17, 2020 at 1:00 P.M. at Westside Family Life Center in Willow Springs with Pastor David Lovan officiating. Inurnment will follow at Little Zion Cemetery in Douglas County. Arrangements are under the direction of Willow Funeral Home, LLC. Online condolences may be left at www.willowspringsfuneralhome.com

“ Kyla, the thing I'm going to choose to remember is that contagious smile of yours....you could light a room just by that beautiful smile...This world was a little brighter and a little better place because you were in it....you were truly loved by so so many.your shine will be missed here on earth but I know your shining even brighter in heaven...see you when we get there.

“ Kyla I rem when you all moved here your house was about 50 yards from my mom and dads house. It was easy to know when you was walking down the street and could hear you talking far before could see you.lol You was always so full of life and always had a beautiful smile and was very easy to talk to. I already miss you so much but I know where you are and that makes it a lot easier to deal with its still hard. I guess the best memory was the day you got bapitized that blessed my heart more than words could ever say. If you see a little boy with very blonde hair and blue eyes that Bubby. He will be able to show you all around Heaven. Kyla I love you so proud of you and look forward to seeing you in Heaven. Till we meet again love you from Willie.

Kyla Jean you were and always will be my bestfriend! I loved you more than any words I can write. I promise to always keep tabs on your beautiful babies. I was so proud of you for making a better life for yourself. I'm so glad you got baptized. I cant think of only one favorite memory. There are so many. You were always there for me. I know you are happy to get to see your mom and dad. :) I pray everytime your name is ever mentioned you put a smile on there face, because you always brought SUNSHINE to my heart and face. I miss you so much already. Say a good word for me up there, see you soon...not good bye

“ I will forever love you so much Kyla. There are so so many memories with you but the day we talked and prayed and you decided you wanted to get baptized by far is the memory I hold to, knowing one day I'll see your beautiful face again. I love you
