“ I have a lot of memories of Levi.. and you know what I can say? Not a SINGLE one was bad. Every single moment I spent with him was the most amazing time because he made sure to make you laugh or smile (at least once). He is so smart and intuitive, an extremely fast learner.. I watched him watch someone do something that he had no idea how to do. And then he did it. He was so amazing. The kindest man alive. So strong willed too, I don't think there was much you could convince him of, unless he was accepting of that idea. He was generous, always showering others in compliments and the honest truth. If you wanted to know if you had something in your teeth, Levi would kindly and jokingly let you know. He was a jokester and it was worth being around. He was an avid hunter, an awesome fisher, and pretty good at it, if I do say so myself. I loved him. He was a son, a brother, and a friend to so many... I will never be able to live another moment without the thought of you in the back of my head, bub. I love you so much.. and I will miss you more than you possibly know.
