“ I am so totally heartbroken. Lori was my best friend in school. We did everything together. When I started middle school she was the first person I met. She had the biggest crush on Dan Murdock & Brent . Drivers training will always be a fond memory but terrifying as one day Lori while driving became nervous foot on the gas. I kept pushing the brake on my side to no avail. I thought we heard really crash into the dirt Hill. It was a one wild ride. She loved animals I remember her dogs and one of the first cats jello who put his food in the water dish and scooped it out with his paw to eat it. I will miss you forever. Love you to the moon and back. My deepest condolences can you Richard, Cordel,Nathan ,Greg and Jennifer your mom was the best.
