“ I want to share my deepest condolences to Mr. Rothenberg and all of Marc's family. Marc was one of my best friends growing up in Rochester and I'll remember him for his sense of humor, outgoing personality and all the fun we had growing up. Marc was one of the nicest kids I've ever met and he will be greatly missed.

“ We wish to express our deepest sympathy to Marc's father and his many friends on his untimely death. We were privileged to become acquainted with Marc through our granddaughter and considered him a part of the family. He was always so kind and showed us the utmost respect. As the old song goes, And the good die young “, this certainly applies to Marc. He will be greatly missed.
