“ I found a picture of Marvin's Commanche airplane. He loved flying it back and forth from California to Montana. I was terrified of flying in it but then he fooled me into thinking I was actually the one steering the plane.

“ After my high school graduation I flew with Uncle Marvin to California in his plane. 8 hrs non stop. We picked up Eva and flew to Montana the next day. He always talked about that flight as we hit a down draft and we lost altitude pretty quick. I stayed with him for several weeks on that trip. Doug and I spent quite a bit of time at his place in Brewster too. He was always trying to talk us into going to Nicaragua. Now I wish we would have taken him up on it. He was always so good at calling me on my birthday. Miss you Uncle Marv.
