

Mary Elizabeth Manchester

September 25, 1938 - December 23, 2018

Mary Elizabeth Manchester, a resident of Pomona, MO, passed away Sunday, December 23, 2018 while at her home. Born September 25, 1938 to Dayton and Lila (DeWitt) Manchester in Boston, MA, she was 80 years old.

Mary grew up in Somerville, attended school there and graduated from Somerville High School. She received her associate degree from California State University in Fullerton. Mary was an insurance specialist and was employed by several large insurance companies including John Hancock and Pacific Mutual. She spent 40 years in the insurance industry as a claims supervisor. In her later years, she worked for Dr. A.K. George as an office manager. She was a faithful member of Ozark Christian Tabernacle in West Plains. Mary was a true Christian who lived what she believed and was a "What Would Jesus Do" type of person, who always put everyone else's needs ahead of her own. She was a very special and generous lady whom everyone loved. She was known as "Nana" to all who met her. She loved to garden and she loved animals, especially her boxer dogs. She will be greatly missed by her family, friends, and all who knew her.

Mary is preceded in death by her parents and a brother, William Manchester.

She is survived by her two sons: Richard Harrison and his wife, Theresa of Pomona and Russell Harrison and his wife, Brenda of Willow Springs, and her daughter, Jeanine Smith and her husband, Terry of Rolla. Also surviving are her grandsons, Dayton Manchester, and Jonathan Manchester of Pomona.

A Memorial service will be held for Mary on Sunday, December 30, 2018 at 3:00 P.M. at Ozark Christian Tabernacle, located at 780 N. Kentucky Ave., West Plains, MO with Dr. A.K. George officiating.

Arrangements are under the direction of Willow Funeral Home, LLC. On-line condolences may be left at www.willowspringsfuneralhome.com
