“ Maxine was a very dear friend of mine and my husband since 1965 when we met at work in Lubbock, Texas. She was a special, special friend and I've missed living close to her for a long time now. We shared many laughs. She was a great encourager to me when I needed it. One really memorable time was when she and her husband, Charles, and my husband and I attend the "World's Fair" in San Antonio, Texas.

I'm grateful to her her close friend Bonnie for sending me a notice of her death and would like to be in touch with Bonnie. Sadly, the envelope with her address was accidently disposed of. That leave me no way to contact her. I hope she will call or write me. I know Maxine had my contact information. Sadly, my late Christmas card was returned to us by the Post Office on the same day the obit from Bonnie arrived

“ Maxine and her sister fell in love with our House on High St. We made the move out as they moved in. In years to come, as I would return to visit, she always insisted I stay with them. It was always felt like going home. Appreciated her and her hospitality. Will miss our times together. Carole Perkins
