“ As we think of Pat, I recall sitting around their kitchen table in P Hill, having lots of laughs, imbibing a few. Meanwhile, our kids would pass through to announce their whereabouts. Good times, good stories.

“ Aunt Pat you were the best. I will never forget when you flew out to CA for big your brother's funeral. There you shared with me the Connelly history and genealogy. I am so blessed to have met you and your family. I enjoyed my time in the Midwest and I owe it to you. You were always a trusted person I could call. When I saw 3 missed calls from Mitch on my phone, I immediately knew we lost a good one. Rest peacefully Pat, I am praying for the repose of your beautiful soul.
