

Mr. Ronald P. Harms

June 26, 1952 - June 8, 2018

RONALD PAUL HARMS

Ronald Paul Harms, a resident of Willow Springs, passed away early Friday morning, June 8, 2018 while at Willow Heath Care Nursing Home, due to natural causes. Born June 26, 1952 in St. Louis, MO to Paul J. and Doris Pauline (Dove) Harms, he was 65 years old.

Ronald grew up in the St. Louis area and attended the local schools. He graduated from Parkway High School and went on to attend an automotive technical school. He worked for various trucking companies. He was employed as a long haul trucker for R. H. Trucking for many years. After moving to Willow Springs, he also served as a dispatcher for the Willow Springs Police Department, as well as a truck driver for Jones Candy Company. When Ronnie wasn't working, music was his favorite past-time. He loved playing his keyboard, and getting together with other musicians for jam sessions. He was a life long member of the Lutheran Church. He will be greatly missed by his family, friends, and all who knew him.

Mr. Harms is preceded in death by his parents.

He is survived by his sister, Janice Morris and her husband, Henry of Jefferson City, MO; and several nieces and nephews.

Arrangements are under the direction of Willow Funeral Home. On-line condolences may be left at www.willowspringsfuneralhome.com

Tribute Wall

TW

“ Terri Wood lit a candle in memory of Mr. Ronald P. Harms

Terri Wood - June 24, 2018 at 09:36 AM

TW

“ Ron was one of my favorite customers at Platt City Waffle House. He always had a smile on his face. He also took me for a ride in Big Red. It was the first time I had ever been in a Semi. Ron will be missed. Rest in Peace Ron.

Terri Wood - June 24, 2018 at 09:34 AM

BW

“ Brent E Easley And Joey Whitlock lit a candle in memory of Mr. Ronald P. Harms

Brent E Easley and Joey Whitlock - June 11, 2018 at 03:31 PM

JK

I miss you so very much. R.I.P. my wonderful and most loving friend of 46 years julee keller - June 24, 2018 at 01:51 AM

“ Brenda Wake lit a candle in memory of Mr. Ronald P. Harms

Brenda Wake - June 09, 2018 at 08:26 AM