Rosetta worked hard to earn a degree in secondary education, business administration and a license in practical nursing. Ten great grandchildren; her brother and sister in law; John and Janice Coady; and numerous nieces and nephews further survive.

"Mom loved to read, paint, sew, shop and spend time with her family. Our fondest memories include her smiles, laughter, singing and dancing with Dad. The love our parents shared for each other set an example of how we want to live our lives. She was a loving wife, mother, daughter, sister, grandmother and friend. Her faith, love, strength and determination was inspiring. All that we are or hope to be, we owe to our Mom. She was truly our hero. Mom, we will miss you and you will always be in our hearts."

“ Sending my sympathy to all of you and your families. So sorry to hear about Rosetta's passing, but what a warrior she has has been throughout her battle with cancer. She was always a pleasure to visit with through the many years of knowing her through having you all in school, having her substitute for my class and seeing her at work at Willow Care. It is hard to lose someone so precious to you, but the memories and joys she shared with you will keep her close at heart everyday. Praying that you find comfort in knowing she is free from suffering and is at peace in the arms of God!
With heartfelt sympathy, Pinky Gum

“ We have so many happy memories of our early years living on High St.
Our house was across the street from Rosetta's. We always played together, and enjoyed many hours in each others' company.
Our parents were close friends and we always knew we could count on the other to be there if needed.
Our hearts go out to Dennis and all family members.
