“ Ginny & Steve were neighbors to my parents while I was growing up in Willow Springs. I enjoyed going to their house and helping Ginny do housework. She always made me feel like I was contributing. Later in life I worked for them at the drug store. Wonderful Christian people

“ Joe and I met Ginny 12 years ago when we moved back to Willow Springs. Even back then Ginny was so well kept and friendly that when we would visit at Willow Care we thought that she was staff until she informed us that she lived there. When we moved to Cedarhurst in West Plains we were so happy to find out that Ginny was our new neighbor just down the hall. We renewed our friendship and enjoyed a lot of time together. I will miss her so much.
