

William J. Jackson

August 10, 1963 - June 4, 2024

William “Jeff” Jeffery Jackson, a resident of Pomona, passed away at St. Louis University Hospital in St. Louis, on June 4, 2024. Jeff was born to William “Bill” and Linda (Stubbs) Jackson and was 60 years old.

Jeff graduated from Cabool High School in 1981. He began working at the Brown Shoe Company in Houston and Cabool where he met his wife, Deanna Kay Melton. On April 11, 1986, they were married at the West Side Family Life Center where they attended church for many years. In his free time, he enjoyed fishing, woodworking, listening to Gospel and Old Country music, spending time with his family and friends, and especially his children and grandchildren. He will be greatly missed by all who loved and knew him.

Jeff was preceded in death by his parents, Bill and Linda; his sister, Mary Leota; and two grandchildren, Theodore Gene McColgin and William Kholton Jackson.

He is survived by his wife, Deanna; his children, Dallas McColgin and wife, Christina, Tim Jackson and wife, Sam, Amber Calder and fiancé, Dalton Forester, and Cassie Collins and fiancé, Wes Morgan; and his sister, Debra Farr and husband, Ron. He is further survived by 12 grandchildren and numerous nieces, nephews, and friends.

The family requests in lieu of flowers to donate to their gofundme at: www.gofundme.com/f/support-jeffs-family-in-their-time-of-loss or leave donations at the funeral home.

“ I remember as a young boy they had came to our house for a visit, Mom was making pancakes, Jeff had already eaten several but when mom ran out of pancake mix. Jeff said " He wanted another gosh darn pancake" we all just laughed our heads off at him. Jeffery was a good man, father, husband and cousin. He will be missed greatly. He is with our Lord and with those who have gone on before.
