

Mrs. Yoshi Blythe

March 18, 1932 - July 28, 2014

Mrs. Yoshi Blythe of Willow Springs, passed away after a lengthy illness on Monday, July 28th while at Ozarks Medical Center in West Plains. Born on March 18, 1932 in Okinawa, Japan to Soshun and Kamato (Itokazu) Ueshiro, she was 82 years old.

Mrs. Blythe grew up in Japan with her six brothers and three sisters. On July 18, 1968 in Okinawa, she married Dalton Blythe and the couple later returned to the United States where they lived in El Paso, Texas before moving to Willow Springs. Yoshi had many enjoyments in her life such as working in her garden, shopping, and enjoying a good meal; however, her greatest joy came from spending time with her grandchildren. Ciera was her first granddaughter and a very special bond was formed. Anytime she would visit, Yoshi had a doll and a dress for Ciera. She enjoyed having her other two granddaughters, Shelby and Katie, paint her nails. Cory was her only grandson and was very special to her. Yoshi will be greatly missed by her family and many friends.

She was preceded in death by her parents; and her husband Dalton Blythe on May 6, 2007.

Mrs. Blythe is survived by her son, David Blythe of Willow Springs; her stepson, Gene Ray Blythe of Wichita, Kansas; and her step-daughter, Jo Ann Anderson and her husband Dave of Arlington, Washington. Yoshi is further survived by her grandchildren, Ciera Soriano; Cory Lee Blythe; Shelby Ann Blythe; Katie Jo Blythe; and her former daughter in law, Reigna Blythe of Las Vegas, Nevada.
